San Francisco inspires images recognized the world over: the Golden Gate Bridge, the “crookedest street in the world,” Fisherman’s Wharf, Chinatown, cable cars, Coit Tower, Victorian houses, that beautiful city caught between the Pacific Ocean and San Francisco Bay like a sparkling jewel in a pool of water. San Francisco heightens an appreciation for the good life. Known for its fine restaurants and shops, San Francisco has something for every appetite and budget. SOMA, or South of Market, a diverse neighborhood, is now home to a myriad of new restaurants and lofts converted into abodes for the young and successful. Nob Hill offers spectacular views of the city from towering hotel dining rooms. Union Square is the center of shopping in all varieties of stores. Visitors are captivated by everything from street minstrels and sidewalk art shows to the highly acclaimed San Francisco Opera and Symphony. Spend your day in the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, the California Palace of the Legion of Honor, or the Asian Art Museum. Summer in San Francisco offers relief from the heat in the rest of the country. Come learn and be refreshed!

The 109th Convention of the American Psychological Association will be held in San Francisco, California, between August 24 and August 28, 2001. As stated in the Association Rules, the purposes of the annual convention are (a) to provide a forum in which members may present their scientific and scholarly work, (b) to present a general program that will be informative and of interest to all members of the association, (c) to facilitate the exchange of experience relating to the applications of psychology, and (d) to provide a place where the business of the association can be carried on efficiently.

Convention programs are developed by the several substantive divisions of APA and include symposia, paper and poster sessions, invited addresses, discussions, workshops, and so on. Meetings for the 109th convention are scheduled in the Moscone Center, the Palace Hotel, the Renaissance Parc 55 Hotel, the San Francisco Hilton Hotel, and the San Francisco Marriott Hotel. Most of the convention program is scheduled between 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. during the five days of the meeting.

Transportation

Transportation from the San Francisco International Airport is available by taxicab and airport express bus. Taxi-cab fare from San Francisco International is approximately $32. SFO Airporter buses serve the following hotels on APA’s housing list: Argent Hotel, San Francisco Marriott Hotel, Palace Hotel, Renaissance Parc 55 Hotel, Grand Hyatt San Francisco Hotel, San Francisco Hilton Hotel, and the Westin St. Francis Hotel. Buses operate seven days a week and depart every 15 minutes from the airport (outside the baggage claim area on the lower level) to the aforementioned hotels between 6:05 a.m. and 12 midnight, and from the hotels back to the airport on a regular schedule (call 415-641-3100 for information). SFO Airporter fares are $12 one-way; fares for children under 12 are $6. Information on door-to-door van service can be obtained by calling Supershuttle at 415-871-7800. Other ground transportation options can be found on the Website for San Francisco International Airport at www.flysfo.com. For those driving to San Francisco, 24-hour guest parking at the APA headquarters hotels costs between $28 and $30. Persons taking Amtrak to San Francisco will arrive at the Amtrak station in Oakland and transfer to an Amtrak bus, which will take them across the Bay Bridge to the Ferry Building, located at the foot of Market Street. From there, it is only a short taxi ride to the hotels. All prices noted above are subject to change.

Travel Tips

San Francisco has been blessed with a mild marine climate. Temperatures seldom rise above 75°F or fall below 40°F. Morning and evening fogs are standard during the summer months but rarely persist during the day. Light jackets or sweaters are recommended for those foggy summer days. California state sales tax is 8%. Hotel rooms are taxed 14%.

Note: All prices listed above are subject to change.

Convention Registration

Beginning March 14, 2001, register online on APA’s Website at http://www.apa.org/convention/. Convention attendees are urged to register for the meeting in advance. Advance registration not only assists APA in planning for the convention but also represents savings to the registrants. In addition, the APA Exhibit Area will be restricted to persons who are wearing badges.

Registration fees are required to support the costs associated with the convention, as well as to comply with the association’s rule that the convention be a self-sustaining service of the association. Persons who request a replacement badge during the convention will be charged $2 each time the request is made. Nonmember spouses/equivalents and dependents under age 18 may register by paying a nonrefundable processing fee of $5 per person if their names appear on the registration form of a fee-paying registrant. ### Housing

FLASH!!! IMPORTANT!!!

Hotel reservations may be made DIRECTLY through the APA/SF Housing Bureau by Internet, fax, mail, or phone beginning on March 14, 2001. Only Advance Convention Registration Forms are to be sent to APA for processing.

In cooperation with APA, all of the APA hotels have set aside substantial blocks of rooms. These rooms for the convention are available only when reservations are made through the APA/SF Housing Bureau. To take advantage of the special APA convention rates, be sure to book your reservations through the APA/SF Housing Bureau by July 17, 2001. After July 17, 2001, the official APA blocks will be released, and the hotels may charge significantly higher rates. Hotel rooms for persons arriving in the city at the last minute will probably be expensive, scarce, or nonexistent. To ensure having a hotel room in an APA hotel, we strongly recommend that individuals obtain hotel reservations early.

During past conventions, the headquarters hotels have been filled by early May. It is anticipated that the headquarters hotels will also be filled early in San Francisco. Housing requests received toward the end of the advance registration period have typically been assigned alternate housing.

Registrants should bear in mind that rooms are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. All rates are per room night and are subjected to a 14% tax (subject to change). Bedding preferences and other special requests will be assigned by the hotels at check in. There is no guarantee that persons will obtain a room in the specific hotel requested, in the type of room requested, or at the rate requested. If accommodations are not available at the hotel of your choice, comparable reservations will be made at other contracted hotels.

Please note that the availability of rooms with an arrival date before August 24 may be limited. Therefore, if you are attending preconvention activities, the APA/SF Housing Bureau will make every effort to accommodate your needs but cannot guarantee early arrival dates.

Reservations can be made through the APA/SF Housing Bureau by Internet, fax, mail, or phone beginning on March 14, 2001. Requests received after July 17, 2001, will be processed on a space-available basis. To reserve a room for the APA convention choose ONE of the following methods:

Internet: Fill out the Hotel Reservation Form and submit it directly using the interactive site at http://www.apa.org/convention/.

Telephone: Call the APA/SF Housing Bureau, Monday–Friday, 8 a.m.–5 p.m., Central time, at 800-424-5256 (toll free) or 847-940-2154 (international). Phone reservations are limited to five per call.

Fax: Send a completed Hotel Reservation Form, using one form per reservation request, to 800-521-6017 or 847-940-2386.

Mail: Send a completed Hotel Reservation Form, using one form per reservation request, to the APA/SF Housing Bureau, 108 Wilmot Road, Suite 400, Deerfield, IL 60015. Make checks payable to “APA/SF Housing Bureau.” Checks must be from a U.S. bank and in U.S. dollars. No wire transfers will be accepted.

The APA/SF Housing Bureau will send you a confirmation. Review it carefully for accuracy. Room confirmation will be sent only to the primary person requesting the reservation. If you do not receive a confirmation via E-mail, fax, or mail within 14 days of sending your request, please contact the housing bureau at 800-424-5256 or 847-940-2154.

All hotels require a deposit of $150 per room, $300 per one-bedroom suite, or $450 per two-bedroom suite. Payment can be made by providing an American Express, Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or Diners Club credit card number on your Hotel Reservation Form or by including a check made out to “APA/SF Housing Bureau.” Credit card deposits will be charged IMMEDIATELY. Please note, if a deposit is not received, your hotel reservation will not be processed.

Persons sharing a room are requested to send in only one Hotel Reservation Form with the names of all of the occupants of the room. By law, there is a limit of four persons to a room, and some hotels will not accept reservations for four persons in a room. Room confirmation will... be sent only to the person requesting the reservation. Colleagues wishing to stay in the same hotel should submit their forms in the same envelope.

Changes/Cancellations/Refunds: Changes/cancellations made on or before July 17, 2001, should be made directly with the APA/SF Housing Bureau and will be refunded in full. The APA/SF Housing Bureau will issue the refund. Changes/cancellations made after 5:00 p.m., Central time, July 17, 2001, are subject to a $16.00 processing fee and can be made directly with the hotel AFTER July 24, 2001.
