
Editors of EPF Journals

2009 Address List

To assist authors of manuscripts submitted to APA's Educational Publishing Foundation (EPF) journals, EPF journal editors' addresses are listed below. The Internet addresses provide links to journal-specific Web pages. The "Authors Corner" (www.apa.org/journals/authors) contains general resources for authors, and the "Instructions to Authors" section of these pages contains any special journal requirements. Style and formatting requirements can be found in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th ed. (see also www.apastyle.apa.org). Most EPF journals receive submissions electronically through the Journals Back Office portal. The following list may be reproduced without permission from APA.
