Reducing Bias by Topic

3.15 Disabilities

The term disability is not a static one but is the result of a person–environment interaction. The less supportive the physical and social environment, the greater the amount of disability (e.g., steps, discrimination; Institute of Medicine, 1997).¹