A Questionnaire about your Values, Attitudes, and Behaviors

Instructions: The statements below describe values, attitudes, and behaviors that you may agree or disagree with. Please indicate the extent to which you agree or disagree with each statement by putting a check mark  $[\sqrt{\ }]$  in one of the boxes next to each statement.

		Strongly Disagree	Somewhat Disagree	Slightly Disagree	Slightly Agree	Somewhat Agree	Strongly Agree
1.	I am in regular contact with my family in the Philippines through telephone calls, email, mail, or texting.
2.	Failing to recognize some one's social status or family standing is offensive.
3.	I always listen carefully to those in positions of authority.
4.	I visit the Philippines often.
5.	When my doctor gives me treatments or recommendations, I tend to be afraid or ashamed to ask questions.
6.	Children should give unquestioning respect and obedience to their elders and authority figures.
7.	I would like to retire in the Philippines.
8.	Instead of confronting someone face to face, I would rather talk about this person behind his or her back.
9.	Praying cannot help cure illnesses.
10.	I always celebrate Rizal Day (December 30th).
11.	If I am unsure about how much I need to repay someone who has done me a favor, I keep trying to pay back the favor so that I do not look ungrateful.
12.	Going to church is not very important to me.
13.	I am familiar with many important events in Filipino history.
14.	My behavior is determined by what others will say, think, or do.
15.	Parents must teach children the importance of religion.

		Strongly Disagree	Somewhat Disagree	Slightly Disagree	Slightly Agree	Somewhat Agree	Strongly Agree
16.	I prefer to see a Pilipino/a physician.
17.	A personal failure is a letdown for the entire family.
18.	Committing suicide is a mortal sin.
19.	I greet the elderly by gently placing the back of their hand on my forehead and saying "mano po" (kissing the hand).
20.	I try to please others, even if it is inconvenient to myself.
21.	Children are blessings and gifts of God.
22.	When speaking with elders, I address them with "po" or "ho."
23.	Using a third party is a good way to avoid the shame of making a request or a complaint face to face.
24.	I leave things to God's will.
25.	I frequently read Filipino newspapers/magazines/books.
26.	I may say I understand something, even when I only partly understand the instructions or what is being said.
27.	One must obey parental advice on education and money.
28.	While I currently do not live there, I consider the Philippines to be my home.
29.	I would give a job to a relative or friend, before giving it to a more qualified person that I did not know.
30.	Siblings should respect the decisions and instructions of older siblings.						